

NWPC Guidelines No. 01
Series of 2020

Interruption of Periods for the Filing of Documents

Pursuant to Administrative Order No. 30, Series of 2020 issued by the President on 21 April 2020, the periods for the following programs, projects and activities of the National Wages and Productivity Commission and Regional Tripartite Wages and Productivity Boards are hereby interrupted:

A. Minimum Wage Fixing and Determination for Workers in Private Enterprises and for Domestic Workers

- a. Period within which interested parties may file their position papers, comments, and other similar documents for Boards that have already commenced consultation and/or public hearing, and;
- b. Period for the filing of appeals from issued Wage Orders or motion for reconsideration from the resolution of the Commission.

B. Application for Exemption from Compliance with the Prescribed Wage Increases

- a. Period for the filing of application for exemption and appeal from the Order of the Boards or motion for reconsideration from the resolution of the Commission.

C. Conduct of Facility Evaluation and Time and Motion Study

- a. Period for the filing of an appeal from a Piece Rate and/or Production Standard Order and Facility Evaluation Order issued by the Board and motion for reconsideration from the resolution of the Commission.

D. Approval of Part-Fixed, Part Performance-Based Compensation Scheme in the Public Bus Industry

- a. Period for the submission of proposed compensation schemes by public utility bus owners and/or operators to the Board having jurisdiction over their principal place of business.

E. Other Internal and External Processes

In view of the foregoing, affected process cycle times of the Commission and the Boards are also hereby interrupted.

Pursuant to the said Administrative Order, the interruption of the aforementioned periods shall apply to applicants or concerned parties from areas where community quarantine was declared, in accordance with the rules issued by the Inter-Agency Task Force (IATF) for the Management of Emerging Infectious Diseases of the Office of the President. The interruption of the aforementioned periods shall last until the date of the community quarantine is lifted by the Office that made such declaration, provided the lifting is in accordance with the rules of the IATF or the Office of the President.
